Stranded [Prologue]

[Clover's POV]

I woke up and I was greeted by the sounds of waves and sand." Huh? What happened." I asked myself wasn't I just on a plane? Did it crash? Oh no! " Everyone!! I found another one!" I heard a voice behind me say. I turned around to see a blue kind of goop? " Mm? Another one? That's wonderful Goo.." Soon a few more objects arrive as I stood up. "Um.. Hello there!" At least I know there's company! " Ah! Hello there darling! Well sorry to ask this but do you have any idea where are we?" I was asked. "Oh sorry sorry! Introductions! I'm Tea Kettle Ultimate Hostess! Lovely to meet you darling!" She said. " Wow! pretty name you have there hehe! I'm Clover! Ultimate Luck! And I don't know where we are.. Sorry!" I replied I honestly thought I was alone in this island! I'm just happy! " Of course she's the Ultimate Luck! I mean, She is a wonderful and lucky Clover." Another voice said snorting a bit. " Ah hello there clover! I'm Cabby! Ultimate Data Collector!" Cabby said bringing her hand out. "Ooh! Nice to meet you Cabby!" I said happily giggling. Suddenly a tall object walked over to us dragging someone. " Well.. uhm.. I found.. This thing.." The tall object said. " Good job Silver Spoon! But is this really everyone?" Cabby curiously asked as she pulled a dark blue file out of her. " Mhm.. yes Cabby, I checked everywhere! While they were just lying on the ground! Ugh! Why even am I looking myself! I'm the leader of this search group! I'm not supposed to do anything." They said. Suddenly we heard a crashing noise. "AAAA! WHAT WAS THAT!" One of them said. "Oh god that sound came from.. Over there! C'mon guys there might be more objects in need of saving" Another one said and we went to where the sound was coming from.

We finally came to where the sound was coming from and there was 8 other objects some were panicking. " Oh great! we're stranded here!" One of them said. The test tube looked over at us." Guys! Look over there! Other objects!" They said pointing at us." Hey there! Do you know where we are? " One of them asked." Well no! We just ended up here." Cabby said." Well I know! " A voice said. Gosh.. This place is kind of creepy! "W-Who said that!? Come out this instant." Then we heard a whistle and we turned to the sound there it stood before us." Greetings and salutations. And welcome to this killing game!" They said. " A WHAT?!" We all said in shock I stood there. A killing game.. oh no.. I knew I couldn't handle deaths. " What eventful twist is this! gotta put this on my blo- Wait.. Where's my phone!" Someone said. " Well while you guys weren't looking I confiscated any form of electronics you guys had!" The host said laughing. " Who even are you to mess with us!" One of the yelled" Well I am your host! MonoPhone4! Well, Anymore questions?" They said. How could they do this? Trapping all of us here? And they even seem so proud about this?" No? Well one more thing! You all will be getting monopads! It will help you all, Well see yo-" " HOLD ON!" The glass of orange juice said. "Ugh, what is it?" MonoPhone asked annoyed. "Let us go! We don't want to participate in this shit! We have our own lives to deal with!" They said with anger. "Or what? If you wanna leave. You have to kill someone AND get away with it dumbass!" Monophone said laughing. " I forgot to mention there's cottages here somewhere with your faces on the doors now, theres also a Picnix Table you can basically get anything you want. And rules will be in the monopad! Without further adieu. I'm taking my leave." Just like that. He was gone. "Oh no.." I said quietly as i look back to everyone who was all confused and scared. I went up to Cabby just to talk to her again she was with the test tube." Hello Cabby!" I said happily. " Oh hey Clover! Oh uhm. Test Tube meet Clover, Clover meet Test Tube." Cabby said as I shook Test Tube's hand. "Hello! As you know I'm Test Tube Ultimate Scientist! Nice to meet you Clover!" She said. "Nice meeting you too Test Tube hehe! I'm the Ultimate Luck!" I exclaimed. "Ultimate Luck? Interesting.. How are you exactly the Ultimate Luck?" She asked. " She's a Clover. And i thought you were the smart one! Thats justtt great!" Someone said sarcastically. " Oh, why not introduce yourself too huh?" Test Tube replied looking at the smaller object that was beside her now. "Nickel. Ultimate Sarcasm. How niceee to meet you." Nickel said sarcastically. "Well nice to meet you too Nickel!" I said patting Nickel. "Get your hands away from me luckster." Nickel said walking away. "Well..that was.. something. " Cabby said taking a file out of her. "Well I'm gonna explore the place! Bye Cabby! Bye Test Tube!" I said skipping away.

I was walking with a few butterflies with me until i saw two smaller objects. "And yeah! Like i have like this alt account for reviews and stuff!" One of them said. "Ooh! So is it like- Oh hi over there!" The blue one said in excitement. "Hello! You two! What are you guys up to?" I asked. "Oh just talking, chatting, those stuff! But anyways. I'm Bow! Ultimate Vlogger!" Bow said happily and I turned to the other object."Goo!! Ultimate Naturalist Nice to meet you Clover!" Goo exclaimed. " I love meeting new people!" I said. "Well i have to go explore now! See you for now!" I said walking away. I walked around for a while wondering the beach to find some of the other people until i came across three of them hanging out together."I knew going on a..vacay..vec.. vacation! Would be the worst idea ever! Now we're stuck in this killing game!" One of them said. "Hello there! Am I interrupting something?" I asked curiosity as eyes were on me."Oh! It's you from the beach i remember seeing you!" One of the exclaimed." Oh! I remember seeing you too! Hehe! I'm Clover ultimate Luck!" I said introducing myself they looked a little stunned at my ultimate. "Luck as in your lucky or-" "I'm the luck! Pretty weird haha!" I said nervously laughing."Well nice to meet you clover, I am OJ Ultimate Manager! I own a hotel called Hotel OJ!" OJ said smiling. "Oh! I've seen that place before! It's gotten a four star review!" I replied as he nodded. "Well I'm Bal-" "I'm Paintbrush! Ultimate Artist!" "Aw c'mon." Paintbrush introduced as the other one sighed. "Oops, Sorry Balloon." Paintbrush said getting a quick glare from Balloon." Anyways, As I said. I'm Balloon, Ultimate Poet, Nice to meet you clover!" Balloon said happily. "Poet? So you make poems?" I asked. "Yeah i do!" Balloon replied." O-oh! Uh hold on!" Balloon said trying to find their note pad. "Oh the one and only miniwich. Lost in sea. As its screams and cries are tormenting me." Balloon proceeded to recite the poem as I listened. I didn't know much poems but his was truly something. Soon I excused myself to leave to find more people. Soon i ran into three more objects!" YIN! HES STUPID! LET ME BEAT HIM!" The YinYang symbol yelled." Aha? I see you're jealous of my highly figure? Well also seems you don't have proper manners of your own." The tall one said." Silver, Yin & Yang better be silent. Someone is here looking at you two." The candle said as the two looked over to me."Oh! Hehe! Sorry I was curious on what you guys were doing!" I said. "Wait, I remember you. You're that lucky clover that with us on the beach. Well bow down lucky one because i am Silver Spoon! Ultimate Etiquette Teacher.

Mostly your future ultimate royal adviser!" Silver Spoon said." DONT LISTEN TO HIM. HE'S A STUPID AND DUMB IDIOT! Yang! Hush up now!" YinYang said as they fought with themselves? "Well still nice to meet y-" "Bow." "Nice to meet you Silver Spoon!" I said bowing. I didn't really enjoy his presence. "Well the name's Clover! ultimate Luck!" I said. "Expected..Well.. I am Candle.. Ultimate meditator.. i sense that you'd mostly live for quite a long period of time. Not really sure on it but you will.. eventually.." Candle said. But what does she mean she can..sense it? "YinYang? yin yang..Well those two fighting well one. Is YinYang and they're the Ultimate Debators. They live in the same body though They have a rough time balancing each other, they'll do it soon.." Candle said. "Ugh! I'm taking these two and I'm teaching them proper etiquette!" Silver Spoon said picking up YinYang and walking away. I turned to candle and said. "Mind coming with me to introduce with the others? " She just gave me a nod as a reply and went back to the beach. I saw TestTube talking with another object and Cabby too!" Hello test tube! Im here with Candle if you dont mind!" I said as Candle began introducing herself to test tube. "Oh! I haven't introduced my to you! I'm Clover! Ultimate Luck!" I said." Cabby told me about you!" They said looking over to Cabby." Anyways! I'm Fan! Ultimate Conspiracy Theorist! I also own a blog sight and something called fan's fantastic features! " They said. Fan's fantastic features? Seems interesting!. "Hey! Yall! I came here with Lifering and Blueberry!" I turned around to see Tea Kettle with the two. "Heya there! I'm Lifering Ultimate Safeguard!" Lifering said. "Nice to meet you Lifering!" I said. I turned over to the other one waiting for them to say something."...meh.. introductions are pointless.. we're all gonna die anyways.. it's pointless.." Blueberry said sitting on the ground in defeat. "Well says here in my file that you're Blueberry! And you're- Pfft- the Ultimate Emo?" Cabby said snickering at the file." I did have an ultimate..but i forgot..it was no use of remembering..so I just went with what people were calling me..The ultimate emo.." Blueberry replied in his deep voice.

Soon we all started hanging out in the picnix table. We were eating out favorite foods on it as Tea Kettle put a nice blue and yellow cloth under it. I was eating a bowl of Matzo Ball Soup which was one of my favorites . Everyone was chatting and having fun. Until

"Hello contestants! It is officially 11PM so better get in your cottages quick!" Monophone said as well all hurried and cleaned up the area before going to our cottages. It wasn't very far though. As I was going back i spotted Bow."Hello bow!" I greeted."Oh! Hiya Clover! Going to bed?" She asked."Yeah!" I replied as we began walking to together. "AAA HELLO!" Goo said as he joined in the conversation. "Sooo I'm not gonna sleep yet because like, I'm so energetic and not sleepy at all!" Bow explained. "Wha?? You have to sleep! It's like the hands of clocks! Tick..tock...Then if it runs out of batteries! It gets tired and stops working! Then you have to get new batteries to replace it with! But what if theres no batteries and-" Goo was suddenly cut off by Bow."Calm down Goo! I'm going to sleep eventually! I'll just have a rough time falling alseep thats all!" Soon we got to the cottages. "Guys i tried the beds and they're as soft as marshmallows! Well goodnight!" Said Goo, I saw bow twitch at that very sentence but just shruged and off."Goodnighttt~" I said as i walked in. It was a cute wooden cottage with clovers all over and good luck quotes! It was pretty cute. Welp time for bed to you Clover! This is a killing game and you cant lose sleep thinking about it! I thought to myself as i layed in bed. Nothing wrong will happen. I just know it!

Prologue for my second Objectronpa posted? Wow.

"Wake up mistakes! It's officially 7 AM so get your lazy asses up and eat breakfast or something."

MonoPhone said through some speaker. I got up looking refreshed as ever, making my bed and heading out the door. As I exit my cottage i see the others getting out of their cottages as well I just happily smiled in the relief that no one had died." Heyo! Good morning Clover!" Bow greated me as Goo trailed behind her." Gooooood morning Bow!, Clover!" Goo happily greeted. He was such an adorable little fella!." Hello there Goo! Hello there Bow! Good morning!" I greeted them with happiness about to burst inside of me. I then saw Test Tube approach us three." Golly good morning Bow!, Clover & Goo as well!" She said as I smiled. "Heya Test Tube! Do you know where that MonoPhone guy is?" Bow asked." Eh who cares where that scobberlotcher is c'mon let's go get some breakfast at the picnix table" Test Tube recommended as we agreed and headed to the table where most of us were at." Morning Everyone!~" I said happily sitting down as the others looked at me." Good morning, Clover! Was it?" Fan said questioning as I nodded." Well I mean what other names can she have Fan?" Cabby replied to Fan as he looked at her." I- I don't know, Oh well" Fan said taking a seat.

Everyone was discussing about the killing game and plans for the day it was loud and active and I love it." So like Clover! Wanna join me and Goo to explore the island? It's pretty big and I'm sure it's gonna be a nice stroll" Bow said." And fresh air! to keep ourselves fresh and happy!!" Goo added as I giggled at their silliness." Of course! I would love to join you guys! Tee hehe!" I replied as I saw the twos face's light up with joy." Coolness! yay! yay!" Bow said jumping up in excitement.

Soon we finished eating and we all went with our day. I hopped out of my seat waiting for Goo and Bow to be ready. I watched the get out of their seats approaching me." Ready to go you two and explore this island?" Goo asked us feeling hyped up. We both agreed and decided to go now, But then." Hey uh Clover." I voice said, I looked behind to see Test Tube." Oh hi Test Tube! What's wrong?" I asked her as Bow and Goo just stood there waiting for me." You two can go for a while I just currently need to borrow Clover for a quick second." Test Tube said as she pulled me to the side." So what do you wanna tell me?" I asked curiously I was a little confused on what she had to say." Well, Mind doing me a favor and, Take care of Bow for me?" She asked me." Oh of course Testy! You can count on me! And on Goo!" I replied as she gave a sigh of relief and soon we started to adventure along this huge island.

We looked around the island, There wasn't much except a shed with weapons and other stuff to kill people, A greenhouse with plants and some random lounge area with some other stuff. At was all we mostly found well what can you expect this is an island! "Clover! Goo! Look what I Found!" Bow said which caught my attention so I went over to her along with Goo." What is it my pink friend?" Goo asked." I found.." Bow said grabbing whatever was behind the bush."Boxes!" She said holding one and lowering the bush to reveal a few more boxes on the floor." Boxes?" I asked wondering why there was a bunch on boxes laying on the floor." Yeah! Boxes not much but I found something!" Bow said posing like she had just won a battle. Soon I heard footsteps coming from behind, I looked to see it was Tea Kettle with a tray filled with chocolate cake." Ah hello dearies! I hope you dont mind for some Chocolate cake!" Tea Kettle said as Bow dropped the box she was just holding and started running over to Tea Kettle." Oh! Oh! Chocolate cake! Give me! Give me!" Bow begged as Tea Kettle gave her a plate of the chocolate cake and a fork." Here you go Bow! How about you two lovelys, Care for some chocolate cake?" Tea Kettle asked looking at both of us." Ooh! I can't say no to cake! Especially chocolate cake! Hehe!" I said excitedly as Tea Kettle gave me a slice of cake and a fork and same for Goo." Just tell me if you kids need more I'll be at the picnix table!" Tea Kettle said as she walked away as me, Goo and Bow started eating our chocolate cakes.

Soon it was night time, we finished our dinner and had a bit of spare time before the announcement came. We were still by the picnix table cleaning up having chats with one another."Has seriously none of you know spoiled lemon? Geez call me the ultimate og sl fan instead!" Fan said to us." Spoiled lemon sucks! Yang you dont even know what spoiled lemon is!" Yin said to yang." Yin, Yang calm down now before chaos starts." Candle said to the two." Oh, thats how they always are. First Yang puts their elbow on the table, Second they don't use the knife correctly." Silver Spoon added." Meh..who cares about etiquette.. we're all gonna die soon.." Blueberry said in his pessimistic tone." Woah! woah! No one is dying here!" Lifering yelled." Yet." Blueberry replied." Can everyone please just clean this up so we can actually have time for ourselves? How does that sound?" OJ said looking rather stressed."Calm down OJ you aren't at your hotel right now" Cabby said." Yeah this is a vacation after all.." Balloon said as Nickel butted it." Hey, hey, used to be a vacation. Now it's a killing game because sooomeone crashed the boat!" He said as the picnix table was getting chaotic. I just walked off not wanting to get involved.

I went somewhere rather near the cabins and sat on the grass. As i heard noises coming from the bushes. I walked over and looked and saw Goo surrounded by..Pinecones? I just watched Goo as they saw me."AAAHH- OH! Clover! You scared me!" Goo said as he let out a sigh of relief." Woah! I heard screaming! What happened?" Bow said as she made her way to us." Oh! It was nothing Bow! I accidentally startled Goo over here, Sorry by the way." I said as Goo just gave me a nod." So like what's with the pinecones?" Bow curiously asked I also looked at Goo wanting an answer." Oh! Don't ask it doesn't matter." Goo replied as I looked at Bow and we shrugged it off. We sat down beside goo me laying on the ground. Goo and Bow saw this and did the same. Bow layed down as Goo wait in this rather melting pose." Woah! I didn't know the stars were like this pretty!" Bow said as we looked at the stars in the sky amazed." Wow! Hehe! You're right! The stars look lovely!" I said looking at the stars admiring the patterns the made twinkling." So what if we like make an appliance and call it Starry Night" Bow recommended." Ooh~! Thats nice! But what about the chee-" "Cheer Factory?" Bow asked cutting Goo off as Goo nodded." Thats gotta be our like some kind of duo appliance. This is our trio one!" Bow said." Wow! An alliance? Sure!" I cheered on as Goo also agreed. And thats how the Starry night alliance was made.We looked at the stars for a while until.

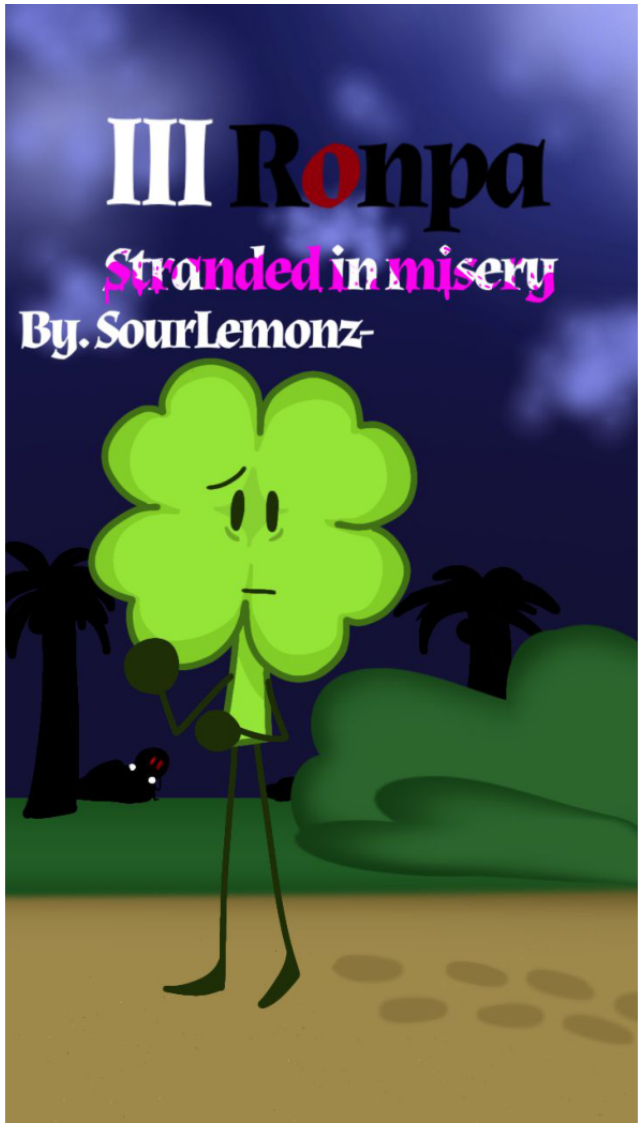
"Hello. As you've guessed it's 11 PM meaning its officially night time AND TIME TO GET GOING TO YOUR ROOMS! Anyways go to bed." Monophone said as Bow whined." Already?? Aw. Not coolness at all. Im canceling him on twitter, if i had my phone" Bow said as the two of us laughed a bit." We got up and started making out way to the cottages. Most us were outside our cottages ready to go inside." Night Bow! Night Clover!" Goo said making his way in his cottage as Bow made her way inside aswell. As i went inside someone tapped me on the back. It was Test Tube." Hey i really thank you for looking after Bow for me, I really appreciate it" She said as I smiled." You're welcome! Just helping you out Test Tube! Goodnight!" I said. "Good night" she replied as I went in my cottage shutting the door and locking it.

What a lovely day today! I wonder what kinds of adventures I'll deal with tomorrow! I thought to myself as I layed in bed and slowly started to drift to sleep.

Omga finally posting a chapter of III Ronpa after BFB Ronpa dealt with constant favoritism? Wowowow!! Anways its either up to the wheel or up to you guys the readers on who gets a free time event with Clover!!!

Important!



New cover! (Bowbot isn't in the cover due to budget cuts)

Also yeah this isn't a new chapter! Sorry

A file about Butterflies

[Clover's POV]

I yawned as I heard the morning announcement, why did I have to wake up so early? Sleeping is fun! But oh well! I stood up and made my bed before going out."Clover! Hi!" Cabby said approaching me. I smiled at her."Why hi there Cabby! Good morning! How's your day-" "Clover! I'd like to know you better!" She said. An awkward silence filled the air."Oh! Uh sure Cabs!" It's a bit sudden Cabby suddenly wanted to get to know me but as the ultimate data collector I guess she just wants to know me better!

"So Clover, Ultimate lucky student yes?" Cabby asked." Ultimate Luck actually!" I replied smiling as she opened her drawer pulling out a light green file."Ah right Ultimate Luck! Sorry about that.." She said taking out a pen and writing something in her file." So tell me why is it called luck? Isn't it the same as being an ultimate lucky student?" Cabby asked." Funny story really! So the thing is i never really won a lottery to get it's title and enter the academy, I just received it because I'm lucky as others tell me, But It's more on just thinking positively! Hehe!" I replied smiling as Cabby just continued writing. "Are you hungry? We should head to the table!" I recommended to Cabby." In a while, Go right ahead Clover!" Cabby said. "C'mon Cabby! You also need energy for the day!" I replied trying to get her to eat breakfast with me. She can't just go right to work on an empty stomach." I..hm..okay" She said as i took her hand and brought her to the pic-nix table.

As we got there most of the others were already there." Okay Cabby and Clover are here so that makes...11 of us!" Lifering said."So who else are we missing?" OJ asked as Lifering looked around" Nickel..Blueberry, Bow, Goo and Silver Spoon, Anyone got an idea where they are?" Lifering asked." Silver mentioned he was on a walk two hours ago, he'll be back in a while." Candle said. I looked over to Cabby who was writing everything down." Hey Cabby" I whispered." Hm? Oh! What is it Clover?" She asked getting closer to me." Oh just asking if you had an idea where the others are." I asked curiously as everyone stayed quiet to listen to Cabby." Well based on how they are in my files, Nickel probably wouldn't be joining us because he doesn't want to, Blueberry could be in his room probably not bothering even getting out like yesterday and Goo and Bow probably are together somewhere" Cabby said." I'll go get Blueberry!" Balloon said hopping out of his seat and going back to the cabanas.

[Third person POV]

Later everyone was finally gathered and they started to eat. "I don't want eat this!" Yang said crossing slamming his fit the table." We're eating this. Yang." Yin replied annoyed." No! I want Dr.Fizz!" Yang yelled out and the table generated it." Yang! We need to eat actual food! Nix!" Yin yelled out. Then the two starting arguing. Ding! Everyone turned to Candle who was holding a tunning fork and a crystal. And they turned to see yinyang on the ground." Oh! My apologies YinYang, But now is not the time to be arguing this early in the morning." Candle said putting away her tunning fork and crystal." Yeah maybe put some duct tape over your mouth! That'd be very helpful!" Nickel said sarcastically rolling his eyes." Am I seriously stuck with such.. plebians? D-ew! I hope you are all are aware you're stuck here with royalty. I even won..erm, Prom queen once." Silver Spoon said annoyed." Prom queen? Seriously?" Nickel asked as Silver looked away from everyone." Ugh! I shouldn't even be conversing with such.. peasants! I'm finished with my breakfast anyways!" Silver Spoon huffed as he stood up and left.

Clover looked over to Cabby who was writing something."Hey Cabby! I think it's best if you finish your food first before writing in you files pwetty pleaseeee?" Clover asks politely as Cabby stores her file and continues to eat. Minutes had passed and the two had finished eating and Cabby continued to ask Clover some questions.

[Clover's POV]

"Clover, Clover, Clover. Anything else you like?" Cabby asked clicking her pen over and over again."Ooh! Well I like chocolate! Honestly anything sweet will do! And... butterflies!" I said hopping around the place as she was behind me."Butterflies? Well heh, I have a file on butterflies, I got facts, orgins and mainly just info about these butterflies! Did you know I also have a file dedicated to butterfly jokes?" Cabby said quickly pulling out her file in excitement." Okay, okay" Cabby said clearing her throat."Did you know thst butterflies live for only about 4 weeks?" Wait what. 4 weeks?! Poor butterflies.."Uh...Clover you okay?" Cabby asked." Just surprised butterflies only lived for that long..quite upsetting..No wonder i dont see most of my butterfly friends back at home that much..They never even told me that!" I replied. "Told you?" She asked me."Oh! I speak butterfly!" I replied as she brought back her file of me out."Interesting! Interesting!" Cabby said scribbling on the file intensively." Hey Cabby! Can I maybe borrow your file on butterflies? It'd like to learn stuff about the butteflies. " I said as she chuckled and took her file out and gave it to me." Take care of it! What's mine is yours! But still take care of it please..." Cabby said as I nodded and gave her a hug before walking away back to the pic-nix table.

"Oh! Oh! Heya Clover! What ya got there?" I turned to see Bow and Test Tube walking over." Oh Cabby let me borrow a file on butterflies! Learning some facts about these cuties! Hehe!" I replied smiling." Golly.. can i take a peak?" Test Tube asked intrigued as I let her look at it." Hey! Ugh! Let me see too!" Bow said struggling to see the file to the point she started jumping." Whoops! Sorry Bow!" Test Tube said picking Bow up and placing her on the chair. We spend most of the day viewing the file, Test Tube really interested as Bow liked the pictures of the butterflies not really any of the writings, but hey! Its true! Butterflies are really eye catching!

Later it was night time and i ran back to Cabby." Cabby!" I exclaimed as she turned around in surprise."O-oh! Hi clover! What is it?" She asked as I handed her the file."Here's the file I borrowed! thank you for letting me borrow it!" I said hugging her real quickly, Cabby's face turned red in surprise."Oh! Hehe, Why thank you Clover! File seems unharmed so thank you!" She says and I smile." You're welcome!～" I said in a sing-song kind of way. Welp! Another day in this killing game nothing bad is happening! Which is great actually! I went to my cottage and soon fell asleep.

WEEE NEW CHAPTER REAL???!?! made at 12 am real
